Roedde House Museum Rental Guide

As one of the oldest buildings in Vancouver, Roedde House Museum is a true historical landmark and a hidden gem. Since 1980, the Roedde House Preservation Society has taken great care to renovate and furnish the house to reflect the atmosphere of late Victorian family life in the West End. Surrounded by downtown Vancouver's iconic City of Glass buildings, this Victorian mansion stands out and stands apart as a window into our city's past. Over the years, this designated Class-A Heritage House has welcomed thousands of visitors from around the world. The Museum also serves as a unique Vancouver event space and venue. We have hosted groups of varying sizes for a wide array of events, receptions and meetings. Invite your guests to step back in time while enjoying all the modern amenities of a contemporary event space.
